6. Procedure for recovery of Property Tax, Penalties, Cesses and Other Levies.- (1) The Demand Notice in case of revision of the demand under sub-section (15) of section 144 of the Act shall be issued along with a speaking Order deciding the property tax, penalties, cesses and other levies as per the Act by the authorized officer:

Provided that no appeal on Show Cause Notice or the Demand Notice or the order shall be admitted unless the person seeking to file appeal deposits fifty percent of the amount mentioned in the Show Cause Notice or the Demand Notice or the Order, to the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike:

Provided further that in case of appeal being successful resulting in refund either in part or full of the already deposited amount, the same shall be immediately refunded by the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike or adjusted against any other pending or future property taxes or penalties or cesses or interest or other levies.

(2) The Property Tax, Penalties, Interest, Cesses and Other Levies shall become due to be paid immediately upon service of such a Demand Notice unless the same is stayed in an appeal. The said Demand Notice shall also be the notice for the purpose of distraint of movable properties, their seizure, distress sale, attachment of immovable properties and the bank account of the defaulter. Thereupon, in case of failure to pay the Property Tax, Penalties, Interest, Cesses and Other Levies, the authorized officer may proceed ahead with the distraint and seizure of movable properties and their distress sale, attachment of the immovable properties and bank accounts of the defaulter for recovery of the Property Tax, Penalties, Interest, Cesses and Other Levies.

(3) The property belonging to the defaulter or the property over which, or the profits of which, he has disposing power which he may exercise for his own benefit, may be attached and sold in order to recover unpaid property tax, interests, penalties, cesses and other levies.

(4) All saleable moveable properties including, but not limited to, goods, money, bank notes, cheques, bills of exchange, hundis, promissory notes, government securities, bonds or other securities for money, debts, shares in a corporation, other than the assets expressly excluded under sub-section (1) of section 60 and section 61 of the Code of Civil Procedure, may be attached and sold in order to recover unpaid property tax, interests, penalties, cesses and other levies.

7. Manner of service of the Demand Notice or the Show Cause Notice or the Order.- (1) The demand notice or the show cause notice or the order shall be served directly on the concerned person or the defaulter and a copy thereof along with proper acknowledgement shall be placed in the record or file.

(2) A scanned copy of the notice/order may be served through the e-mail ID of the defaulter, if the same is available.

(3) If the notice/order could not be served in the manner stated above, it shall be served by affixture on the property concerned or the last known address of the defaulter and the fact of service by affixture shall be recorded by drawing up the Panchanama. If the defaulter is avoiding the service of the notice/order, the same shall be mentioned in the Panchanama evidencing service by affixture. The format of Panchanama shall be in Form-8.

(4) The service by affixture is also necessary if the notice/order, which could not be served directly on the person/defaulter but is served through an e-mail ID.

(5) The notice/order may also be served through any electronic messenger application, including Whatsapp/SMS/email. However, it shall be followed by service by affixture as aforesaid.

(6) Wherever it is practicable, it should be preferable to have videographic evidence or photos of service by affixture on record.

8. Procedure upon failure to pay Property Tax or Penalties or Cesses or Other Levies.- (1) If the person to whom a notice of demand has been served under these rules does not pay the Property Tax, Interest, Penalties, Cesses and other Levies, within thirty days from the service of such notice, in the absence of any stay issued by the Appellate Authorities under rule 4, the Revenue Officer or the authorized officer may recover by distraint under his warrant and sale of such movable property of the defaulter or if the defaulter is the occupier of the building by distress and sale of any movable property which may be found in or on such building or land, the amount due on account of tax, penalties, cesses and levies, together with the warrant fee and distraint fee and with such further sums as will satisfy the probable charges, that will be incurred in connection with the detention and of the sale of property so distrained.

(2) If, for any reason the distraint or a sufficient distraint of the defaulter's property cannot be effected, the Revenue Officer or authorized officer may attach and seal, by passing an order in this regard, the bank account and/or the immovable property of the defaulter until the recovery of the property tax, interest, penalties, cesses and other levies, together with the warrant fee and distraint fee and with such further sums as shall satisfy the probable charges, that may be incurred in connection with the attachment of the immovable property:

Provided that Revenue Officer or authorized officer may order or direct the Bank to deduct and remit the amount due on account of property tax, interest, penalties, cesses and other levies.

(3) The Revenue Officer or authorized officer may prosecute the defaulter before a competent court.

(4) Distraints of movable properties of the defaulter: (i) Orders of distraint under these rules shall be in Form-9 and issued by the authorized officer.

(ii) For distraint of moveable properties of the defaulter, the following procedure shall be followed, namely:-

(a) The distraint shall be made by the Revenue Officer or authorised officer in the presence of independent witnesses consisting of not less than two respectable persons of the locality. A copy of the order shall be given to the defaulter if he is present and if he is absent and there is not any properly authorised agent to receive it, the order of distraint shall be served at his usual place of residence or on the premises where the distraint is to be made. After the distraint is made an inventory of the property distrained shall be made in Form-10 and attested by the Revenue Officer or the Assistant Revenue Officer and by the witnesses. A copy of the inventory shall be handed over to the defaulter or his authorised agent, if he is present. The property distrained shall not be disproportionate to the amount of arrears to be recovered.

(b) All distrained property shall ordinarily be retained in the custody of the Revenue Officer or the Assistant Revenue Officer unless some other arrangement is deemed more suitable, in which event the Revenue Officer or the Assistant Revenue Officer may make such arrangements.

(iii) On all matters not expressly provided for in this rule, the procedure regarding distraints shall, as far as may be, be similar to that prescribed in respect of attachments of movable property by civil courts.

(5) Sale of Movable Properties. – (a) The notice of auction sale under these rules shall be in Form-11 with such modifications as may be necessary.

(b) The Upset Price or the minimum auction price for each movable property shall be fixed by the Joint Commissioner of the Zone upon proposal made in this regard by the Revenue Officer. The Joint Commissioner may take assistance of such officers as he deems knowledgeable to advise on the same.

(c) The notice of auction sale shall be affixed on the following places, namely:-

- (i) on the property which is liable to pay the Property tax;
- (ii) website of the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike;
- (iii) the notice board of the Office of the Zonal Commissioner;
- (iv) the notice board of the Office of the Revenue Officer of the Division;
- (v) the notice board of the Office of the Assistant Revenue Officer;
- (vi) the notice board of the Ward Office concerned; and
- (vii) the local conspicuous public space in the locality in which the property liable to pay property tax is situated.

(d) Every sale held under these rules shall be held on the day named in the proclamation, and if necessary, continued from day to day (except public or general holidays), until all the properties specified in the sale proclamation shall have been sold. The Deputy Commissioner (Revenue) may adjourn any sale for a period not exceeding three days recording reasons for such adjournment.

(e) Where owing to combination or other causes there are either no bidders or the bids offered are not adequate as against the upset price, the Deputy Commissioner (Revenue) shall postpone the sale.

(f) The certificate of sale/purchase of movable property to be granted under these rules shall be in Form-12.

(6) Attachment of Immovable Property.- (i) The attachment of immoveable property shall be made by an order prohibiting the defaulter from transferring or charging the property in any way and all persons from taking any benefit from such transfer or charge. The attachment Order shall be in Form-13. The same shall be communicated to the jurisdictional Sub-Registrar working under the Stamps and Registration Department, who shall record the attachment as encumbrance with respect to the said property.

(ii) The order under sub-rule shall be proclaimed at some place on or adjacent to such property by beat of drum or other suitable mode and a copy of the order shall be affixed on a conspicuous part of the property and also on the notice board of the office of the Revenue Officer making the order. It shall also be published on the website of the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike. The copy shall be served on the defaulter who is the owner of the property.

(iii) The Trade License, if any, for any activity running in the said immovable property shall stand immediately suspended when the order of suspension is issued by the authorized officer empowered to attach the immovable property and running of any commerce or trade may be stopped on such an immovable property by way of sealing of the commercial premises/property. Such order shall be in Form-5B. The Trade

License shall stand cancelled, in case the defaulter fails to pay all the outstanding dues within three months from the date of order of attachment and the running of the trade shall be stopped.

(7) Claims to immovable property attached: (i) If any claim is set up by a person other than the defaulter, to the immovable property attached under these rules, the Revenue Officer making the attachment shall hold a summary enquiry into the claim and after such enquiry may admit or reject the claim.

(ii) The person against whom an order is made under this sub-rule may, within one year from the date of such order, institute a suit to establish the right which he claims to the property attached, but subject to the result of such suit, if any, the order shall be conclusive.

(8) Registers of movable properties sold, and immovable properties attached shall be kept in the office of the Revenue Officer in Form-14 and Form-15, respectively.

(9) Attachment of bank account of defaulter.- The following steps shall be followed for recovery of the taxes by attachment of the bank account of the defaulter,-

(i) The attachment warrant to the bank shall be in Form-16. The bank is also under the statutory obligation to furnish the complete details of all the bank accounts held by the defaulter including fixed deposits and others. It shall be ensured that a copy of the attachment warrant is also served on the defaulter simultaneously or as soon as possible directly on the person and if it is not practical to serve the same directly, it may be served through e-mail ID or any other electronic medium.

(ii) The Bank on receipt of the attachment warrant shall disclose all the bank accounts of the defaulter to the authorized officer and furnish the details of amounts available to the credit in Form-16.

(iii) In case the Bank fails to comply with the terms of the attachment warrant and allows the person-in-default to draw any amount that may be available to his credit in any account held in the bank, the authorized officer may proceed against the bank under section 187 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 including and issue a show-cause notice in Form-17.

(iv) The Revenue Officer or an authorized officer may seek order of the competent court for making attachment warrant with respect to an immovable property absolute and also prosecute the defaulter of payment: The authorized officer may file a complaint under section 200 of the Code of Criminal Procedure to prosecute the person-in-default even after issue of demand notice before the court of competent jurisdiction.

9. Procedure for maintenance, updation and mutation of Property and Land Records.- (1) (a) On receipt of information of changes in the rights over building or lands or both on account of succession, survivorship, inheritance, gift, transfer or otherwise,-

- (i) through intimation slips from the Sub-Registrar in Form -18; or
- (ii) by virtue of orders of authorized officers or the Court; or
- (iii) due to information given in this regard by any interested person, the Assistant Revenue Officer or the authorized officer shall record the information in the Register of Information of Mutations of the property and land records in Form-19. A Register for recording details about the information of Inheritance or Succession or Survivorship cases shall be maintained by the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike in Form-20.

(b) The intimation received from the inheritors or survivors or successors for mutation in their name in event of death of the owner or occupier recorded in the property records of the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike shall be in Form-21. The intimation of transfer of property through a registered deed in the Sub-Registrar office but where the intimation slip from the Sub-Registrar fails to reach to the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike may be given by the concerned persons in Form-22. A certified copy of the registered deed shall be attached.

(2) After the information of mutation is recorded in the Register of Information of Mutations, the information shall be immediately published in Form-23 on the notice board of the office of the Assistant Revenue Officer or the authorized officer, in the website of the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike, served on the concerned property in the manner specified for service of demand notice for the property tax and individual notices shall be issued simultaneously to the parties concerned, giving a period of not less than fifteen days as opportunity to file objections, if any, to the proposed mutation. The same shall apply to the mutations sought on the basis of an order of the Court or the Appellate Authority unless there is specific order to the contrary by the Court or the Appellate Authority to implement the order immediately:

Provided that in case of orders of the Courts or the Authorized Officers in appeal, during the said period of fifteen days, any person may bring in writing to the notice of the Assistant Revenue Officer or the authorized officer any further orders of a Competent Court or an Appellate Authority on the original order of the Court or the authorized officer which was sought for implementation. After the end of fifteen days the Assistant Revenue Officer or the authorized officer shall mutate property or land records or take action as per the latest orders of the competent Courts or the Appellate Authority.

(3) If no objection is received within a period of fifteen days from the date of service of notice under this rule, the mutation entry shall be certified by the Assistant Revenue Officer or the authorized officer and the property or land records shall be accordingly mutated.

(4) Objections, if any, received within fifteen days shall be entered in the register of disputed cases and shall be disposed of by the Assistant Revenue Officer or the authorized officer after giving the opportunity of being heard to the parties concerned. The result of the decision in such cases shall be entered in the property Registers. Whenever a field inspection is considered necessary, such officer shall make such inspection, after giving due notice to the parties concerned of such inspection. Such an inspection shall be conducted in the presence of two respectable locals, if they are available, and of the parties concerned, if they are present:

Provided that disputed cases shall be disposed of within thirty days of date of receipt of objection in a summary hearing.

(5) Such officer shall communicate his decision to the parties if they are present and make a note to that effect. If the parties are not present, a written intimation of the decision shall be sent by post, to the last known address of the parties and also through the means provided for service of notice of demand of property tax under these rules and the date of such intimation shall be noted in the Register of Disputed Cases. The decision of the Court or the authorized officer, in case there is no stay in an appeal, the property or land records shall be accordingly updated.

(6) An appeal shall lie against the decision of such officer to Authority specified in rule 4.

2. Whereas the above-mentioned bank has failed to comply with the terms of the above-said Notice for the following reasons:

(a). The bank has allowed the above-mentioned person-in-default to draw the money to the extent of Rs. _____ / and/or allowed the operation of the bank accounts after the service of the aforesaid Notice.

(b). The bank has not disclosed or furnished the complete details of the bank accounts held by the above-said person-in-default and/or not handed over the amounts available to the credit of the above-said person-in-default.

(The above violations are only illustrative and not exhaustive – the Designated Officer may precisely summarize the violation/non-compliance by the Bank)

3. It is therefore considered necessary as well as appropriate to proceed against you for the above-said violation/non-compliance with the terms of the Notice mentioned above in the manner provided under the law, including sections 188 and 187 of the Indian Penal Code (IPC), 1860 for disobedience to the order of the public servant and for failure to assist the public servant in discharge his duties.

4. It is therefore directed that you may show cause within 14 days from the date of receipt of this Notice why proceedings should not be initiated against you under the law for non-compliance with the aforesaid Notice dated, _____. The undersigned will be constrained to proceed against you without any further Notice if there is no reply within the said time of 14 days for the aforesaid violations of the law.
